Last week, we ended by asking the question: do you believe in Jesus? Because this should answer most questions regarding assurance. However, as I said, many today and in Jesus' day are looking for answers to help with their conscience. For most of us, when we struggle with assurance it is about how we feel about ourselves, not God. We have no doubt that God is able and willing to save us, we just wonder if we have done enough for Him to have us. Reality check: you can add nothing to your salvation. Jesus has done it all for you. Paul reminds the disciples in Rome, "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

We often feel like we need to do something. That can be great motivation toward action concerning our sanctification, however it is highly misdirected when we feel that way toward our salvation because we cannot earn our salvation. In John 6:28b-29, we read, "They said to Him [Jesus], 'What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?' Jesus answered and said to them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He sent.'" If you seek assurance, more work and worry will not help you. You and I need to answer this question: Have you believed (put your full faith and fidelity) in Jesus and His finished work on the Cross of Calvary? That is where we find assurance: our faith in Jesus.

In the first chapter of John, we read, "But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." (John 1:12-13) Please remember that it is in the past tense when John writes as many as received Him. This means something has been done. This is one of those verses we often misquote because we tell people they can receive Jesus for salvation if they want to.

But the reality is that all who have received Jesus have been given the right to become the children of God by faith. (See Mark 16:16; John 3:16-17) It is important to note that the gospel benefits only the faithful choice of the individual believer: a whosoever. Consider this verse from John 6:37, "All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out." If you have received Jesus, He will not throw you away even if you stumble. He will keep you. More on that next time.
