Pastor Ty Orr

HE IS RISEN Indeed!

The resurrection of Jesus Christ is one of the most significant events in human history. It represents the triumph of life over death and the promise of eternal life. The resurrection is not just a matter of faith, but is also supported by historical facts.

The empty tomb is one of the most compelling pieces of evidence for the resurrection. According to the Gospels, after Jesus was crucified, His body was placed in a tomb. Three days later, the tomb was found empty. Multiple sources, including the Gospel accounts and the Apostle Paul's writings, have corroborated the empty tomb. In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul writes that Jesus was buried and raised on the third day (1 Corinthians 15:3-4). The fact that Jesus' body was not found in the tomb supports the belief in the resurrection.

Another piece of evidence is the testimony of the witnesses. According to the Gospels, after Jesus' resurrection, He came to His disciples and at one point appeared to over five hundred witnesses at once (1 Corinthians 15:6). These witnesses were not only convinced that they had seen Jesus, but they were also willing to suffer persecution and even death for their belief in His resurrection. This indicates that they believed what they saw was real and not a fabrication. Few people are willing to die for a lie.

The conversion of Saul of Tarsus, who became the Apostle Paul, is another piece of evidence for the resurrection. Saul was a devout Jew who persecuted Christians before encountering the risen Jesus on the road to Damascus (Acts 9). This experience transformed him into a loyal follower of Christ, and he became one of the most influential figures in early Christianity.

In addition, the growth of Christianity itself is evidence of the resurrection. Christianity emerged in a hostile environment and faced intense persecution yet multiplied rapidly. This growth is only possible with a significant event, such as the resurrection of Jesus. As Paul writes in his letter to the Corinthians, "if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith is in vain" (1 Corinthians 15:14).
