It has been said that “Brokenness is often the road to breakthrough.” When you and I suffer, we can be assured of two things. First and foremost, God knows what we are experiencing, and as He redeems every situation we will be changed forever. Paul writes to the Christians in Rome, “And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover, whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified” (Romans 8:28-30). Never freak out, for our future is glorious and sure in Christ.

It’s also important to remember that when we face challenges in life, we can always find comfort in understanding them through the context of God’s love for us and the incredible future that awaits us! Just a little earlier, Paul shares a beautiful thought: “For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us” (Romans 8:18). Our glorious future is also secure in Christ. (See Philippians 1:6)

Our loving God also can redeem even the painful suffering we sometimes create for ourselves through our own selfish desires, unwise choices, or wrongdoings. Because God cares for us deeply, He uses every moment in our lives for His glory and our ultimate good. His divine purpose is assured; as we remain faithful to Him, He guides us toward a place of mature faith, even through our challenges. As James beautifully writes, “My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect [mature] and complete, lacking nothing” (James 1:2-4). Difficulties make us stronger and more mature in our walk with God. So don’t despise the broken road. Humbly embrace the lesson and keep moving.

Remember, Paul also said, “Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will, of the flesh, reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will, of the Spirit, reap everlasting life” (Galatians 6:7-8). The rub is sometimes what we suffer from in our own hands. This week, take a moment to pause and ask God to teach you along the broken road.
