Never allow the reality of God's involvement in our lives to fade from view. God was not surprised by the day you were born, nor will He be surprised on the day of our death when we enter His glorious presence and see Him face to face in a new reality. As Paul says, "We [believers] are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. Therefore, we make it our aim, whether present or absent, to be well pleasing to Him" (2 Corinthians 5:8-9). Paul tells the church in Corinth that they, just like you and I, have a purpose in this life: to be pleasing to the Lord. If you don't remember, the church in Corinth has some issues, and this is a wake-up call to them and an excellent reminder for us today.

So, what does it mean to be pleasing to the Lord? This involves much more than simply keeping rules. I would suggest that we have God-given work to accomplish in the in-between space of the "now" and "not yet" of God's kingdom. You could say we are meant to pursue God's divine purposes. This doesn't imply that we neglect school, jobs, or relationships. Rather, it means we are engaging in God's work in all the places where God has directed our lives, whether we realize it or not. Wherever you are, you are there for God's reasons. Consider how God can use you as His vessel of love, justice, and benevolence in everyday situations.

Therefore, we have a divine purpose embedded in our very being by God. Paul writes, "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them" (Ephesians 2:8-10). At this point, it would be hard to deny that we are created with divine intent. You have a reason for being, a source for your existence, and it is divine. God gave you your life for His purposes.

David writes, "I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Marvelous are Your works, and that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You, when I was made in secret, and skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book, they all were written, the days fashioned for me, when as yet there were none of them" (Psalm 139:14-16). You and I are here to help others know the God who also gave them life and purpose.
