God's Greatest Purpose FOR YOUR LIFE

Pastor Ty Orr

PART ONE: GOD'S DEFINING PURPOSE

When believers ask about God's will for their lives, the conversation often quickly turns to decisions: Which career should I pursue? Whom should I marry? Where should I serve? What ministry is God calling me to? Those questions matter, and God cares about every part of our lives. Yet the New Testament directs us first to a purpose deeper than any particular decision.

Before God is concerned with what you will do, He is committed to who you are becoming.

Romans 8:28 offers one of Scripture's most cherished promises: "We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose." In seasons of loss, uncertainty, disappointment, and pain, these words remind believers that their lives are not random. Nothing escapes God's sovereign care.

But Paul does not leave the word "good" undefined. The next verse explains God's intended good: "For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son" (Romans 8:29).

God's greatest purpose for your life is not merely that circumstances become easier, more comfortable, or more successful. His purpose is that you increasingly reflect Jesus Christ.

That changes how we interpret our lives. We often define good as relief from trouble, financial stability, healthy relationships, a clear future, or the fulfillment of our plans. These can be wonderful gifts from God, but they are not the ultimate goal. God is doing something more enduring: He is forming Christlike character in His people.

This means even difficult seasons can have purpose. Waiting can teach patience. Disappointment can reveal misplaced hopes. Trials can deepen dependence on the Lord. Failure, when met with repentance, can lead us into a fuller experience of God's mercy and grace.

God does not waste the circumstances of His children. He uses both joy and sorrow, success and setback, clarity and confusion to shape us into the likeness of His Son. Perhaps the question is not only, "Why is this happening to me?" A more faithful question may be, "How is God using this to make me more like Christ?"
