CAN YOU HELP A Brother Out?

Pastor Ty Orr

PART 2

Regarding love that actually covers multitudes of sin, I would like to offer a familiar analogy for us to consider to help us understand the Apostles' intent. It would be my hope and is my prayer, that if any one of us as followers of Jesus, see someone in distress that we would come to their aid. If they are hungry, we would give them food. If they are naked, we would give them clothes. If they are injured, we would bind their wounds (James 2:15-17; Luke 10:25-37). In other words, we would give them something to cover their shame, right? At least I would hope so. We would not seek to call attention to their hurt and pain but would seek to help cover them in it. This is what it means to love your neighbor as yourself and to let that love cover a multitude of sins. Now we do not seek to ignore the sin but rather come alongside and help our brothers or sisters by giving loving assistance. This is that they may deal with their sin without us shouting it from the rooftops for all to hear. Would you want others to tell the world of your shortcomings? No? Me neither. But I would welcome loving help from those close to me and sincerely desire the best for my life and walk with God. How about you?
