PART 2

Jesus says clearly, "But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you..." (Matthew 5:44) Here is a ruff rub for us to consider. What would we do for someone who is suffering that we loved deeply? Without question, we would help them. We would see if we could alleviate their pain or pressure. At least I hope we would; we are Christ's representative after all. Even if someone has purposefully hurt us? Yes. You may be wondering, "But what about all the wrong they have done?" That is a great question. Paul may have an answer for us from his letter to the Romans as he makes application from Deuteronomy 32:35, "Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to wrath; for it is written, 'Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,' says the Lord. 'If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him a drink; For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head.' Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good" (Romans 12:19–21). Even if someone has brought on themselves hurt, we are to be the instrument of God's great love. Rejoicing when our enemy falls will not please the Lord. But coming to the aid of His creation, whom He loves, when they are in need is not only morally and ethically correct but a divine call on the child of God. When we love those who fall, we not only bless and serve God but those who desperately need to see how real He is. And surprise! He uses us to make himself known through us: what a great privilege, calling, and responsibility. Remember that blessing, not vengeance, is ours to give and give freely.
